

Bay Studies activities take place rain or shine. Weather in May can range from breezy and cool to hot and humid. ☁️ Please check the weather daily, both the overnight low temperature and the afternoon high temperature, and dress accordingly.

Overnight Packing List:

Each grade has a one-night overnight at Echo Hill. All students will be staying in individual tents.

- Tent - please be sure to communicate by May 10th with Emily Beck if you need to borrow a tent
- Sleeping bag
- Sleeping mat (optional)
- Flashlight/headlamp
- Pillow
- Toothbrush/toothpaste, toiletry essentials
- Medications -- If you are bringing medications, please bring the completed Medication Administration Form to Mrs. Manion prior to Bay Studies.
- A warm sweater or fleece, sweatpants, socks, hat/gloves (if very chilly)
- Raincoat
- towel, bathing suit, and water shoes
- a change of clothes
- please wear comfortable sneakers (closed-toe shoes required)

Daily Workshops:

What to wear:

Please dress in outdoor clothing and wear layers to help with changes in temperature and sun exposure throughout the day. Most Bay Studies workshops will be out of doors daily and will occur rain or shine. All attire should conform to Gunston's current dress code and expectations.

Bring a backpack with:

- Bagged lunch and snacks
 - Bagged lunches can be picked up from Gunston between 8 and 8:30 Monday - Thursday.
- Full&refillable water bottle
- Sunscreen, hat, sunglasses
- Raincoat/poncho
- Bug spray (optional)

Activity-dependent things to wear/bring (Bay 201, Sense of Place, Climate Science, BIPOC, Echo Hill Boats)

- water shoes
- bathing suit
- long sleeve rash guard/sun shirt
- towel
- layers, etc
- sneakers