

Chesapeake Bay Studies | May 2018

Program: Make/Do

w/ Jessica Coner and Mike Kaylor

Make/Do, the hipster artisan revival -- The Eastern Shore is home to a thriving artisan community that is deeply connected to the Chesapeake Bay. During this week students will visit several makerspaces and have the opportunity to work with clay, metal, wood, and paper, completing an innovative portfolio. Day trips

Itinerary:

	Time	Activity	Location
Mon   May 21	8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.	Book Binding Beach Combing	Washington College
Tues   May 22	8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.	Pottery Studio & Sketching	Chester River
Wed   May 23	8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.	Beach Combing and Art in Nature	CBEC
Thu   May 24	8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.	Art in the community	Chestertown
Fri   May 25	8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.	Beachcombing Jewelry	Gunston

What to bring:

Lunch, water bottle, clothing for the weather

Dress Code:

Monday - Thursday: Casual while neat and appropriate (closed toe shoes required)